Share Willowgreen's popular video, audio, and written resources, delivered by personalized email, as a way of supplementing your own presence.

Ensure support and encouragement day and night, whenever it's convenient for those you're concerned about. Deliver memorable positive messages wherever these people are. Enable instant communication via a computer, tablet, or smartphone—all are equally effective.

Respond to the needs of today's stressed family caregivers with Daily Inspirations for Caregivers. Support the trying journey of the recently bereaved with 100 Healing Messages for Your Grief.

Once you enter a subscriber's name, they'll begin to receive their emailed helps. Offer 100 Healing Messages and a short, thoughtful video about a specific, progressive aspect of grief will arrive like clockwork every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday morning. Each also includes a downloadable PDF. Give a Daily Inspirations subscription to family caregivers and a video, an audio, a writing, or a photo-thought will be sent each morning for a full year. Videos and audios can be replayed. Writings and photos can be printed. All are the work of James E. Miller.
